You have a deal to score. Open honey and shop for yourself all year round. Its a bit confusing and a bit mysterious use, but otherwise okay so so far, I'd rather use a computer than a mobile because it's a lot easier. I joined Honey from 2017 and earned quite a few points (about 10,000 honey gold). One day I made up my main email to switch to another. Suddenly, my point and everything I added to the drop list is gone. I contacted customer service and after 2 months, my problem has not yet been resolved. These points just disappeared like that and it was just due to a terrible UI. Dealing with customer service is terrible, there is also no phone support for me to resolve what happened. There is no record of my history in their system that shows I have accumulated all these points. So now I have to go to every website I've bought since 2017 so I can prove I've earned these points. Customer service will not strive or apologize at least in the slightest to show that they understand. It's utterly ridiculous. Don't waste your time with this app or honey. I'm really sorry that I tried to fix the gold in my account and had a very bad experience with the delay in aid. We are pleased to contact you today to get your account back on track and fix honey gold issues. We are happy to help you with any future issues. Thank you very much! I've never thought anything of it, with the handle of a social media platform, seeing honey on top of my favorite YouTuber channel. Let me tell you that I was wrong because I haven't paid full price for the majority of my online purchases since I downloaded Honey!From a huge selection of stores, active coupons that show all promo codes connected to any store, and price drop alerts. 10/10 recommends downloading Developer Honey, Honey, indicated that the privacy practices of the app may include the handling of data as described below.
